

COULD PROPHET MUHAMMAD ﷺ READ?

The first Qur'anic Revelation and the pursuit of Scientific Knowledge

A lecture by

SHAYKH MUHAMMAD IMDAD HUSSAIN PIRZADA

For centuries Muslim scholars have been discussing the issue of the noble Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) not reciting at the instance of the first Qur'anic revelation and his ability to read.

The first five verses of Chapter 96 (Surat al-'Alaq, The Clot) hold within them much wisdom, knowledge and light. Shaykh M I H Pirzada, who is currently writing the first Tafsir of the holy Qur'an to be written in the United Kingdom, has spent much time researching this subject. This lecture is a result of his scholarly study in which the entire issue will be examined and lessons for this modern age derived. A must for all those seeking the Truth.

To benefit fully from this unique opportunity all attendees are recommended to bring a notebook and pen.

The lecture will be ideal for both English and Urdu speaking listeners since it will be simultaneously presented in English and Urdu.
